P. Letters to prison authorities proved fruitless.

E. I did complain, many times. Lettersproved I did.

IV. STATEMENT OF THE CLAIM: Conspiracy to Keep me in carcerated in Virginia as long as they thought They could get away with.

On July 20, 2006, Counselor Ms. Justice informed me that a detainer R's had been placed on me by a Marshal Robert Barrett, that detainer sent to the prison by a Ms. Theresa Ward, Detainer Coordinator for the Virginia Department of corrections. The detainer stated I was wanted on a complaint for supervised release from the Southern District of Florida, Ms. Justice explained to me that I could sign the forms and ask for a speedy hearing on the complaint or wait until I finished my sentence in Virginia and then take the chance of The authorities in Florida of extraditing or not. I chose To sign the detainer forms to return to Florida as soon as possible to answer the complaint. I might add, I had No Knowledge of a term of Supervised release in Florida, -Warden Braxton and Ms Justice also had signed the forms on July 20, 2006 and they were to be mailed promptly, por the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act. Article 111, sec. (b). The IADA also states in Article 111. sec. (a) " 180 days from the time that The forms are promptly mailed, first clars, return receipt requested and in the hands of the requesting state (Florida). The sending state (Virginia) will transport The defendant to The receiving state within that 180 days or an order to dismiss the detainer, it the rules are not adhered to "

Request as to the status of the detainer forms were in Some cases to tally ignored and or lied about. On Jan. 29, 2007 189 days after she said the papers were mailed I sent a request to her in which she stated that she had personally handed the forms to the head of the records department, ATROHES EX-H

EXH-C1

STATEMENT (CONTY)

Additional requests were sent to the mailroom asking for a copy of the return receipt. Requests were ignored or information fabricated, Requests To Warden Broxton concerning the Records head and Mailroom head were never answered. Several letters were sent to the Virsinia Depti of Corn. Attached WA Prinally, Ms. Theresa ward answered on March 7 2007 with a copy of a letter that was deted. August 1 2006 Attached the letter was addressed to me but never received by me until Who A Ms. Ward sent a copy. Ms. ward included her own mis interpretation of the rules of the IADA. It is not her job or expertse to make determinations reserved for the courts, Another letter received from Ms. Ward, deted April 9 2009 stated the Detainer forms were sent to me in error. Again, she is wrong, they were issued by Inflorida. A better from Gene Johnson was also received by me with incorrect information, leading one to believe if anyone working for the Virginia Department of Corrections Knows what they are doing or are they all involved in a conspiracy, the latter is the Truth.

Not having heard from the court in Florida within the 180 days. (I didn't know at that time that the detainer Form had not been sent) I filed a Motion to Dismiss The detainer on Ex. B-1 January 25, 2007, Replies from the court in Florida had stated That since I was not in their jurisdiction my motion could not be addressed. (They knew nothing about The detainer forms) However, the court would have addressed The issues raised in my metion, had the people from Augusta Correctional Center mailed the detainer papers to the court in Florida. They were purposely not mailed and I had stated the reason in my letter to the Florida Court dated April 4 2007 To wit: "I also believe that the Virginia people did not send the Ex. BD detainer papers to the court in Florida because they knew that my time In Florida would run along with my time in Virginia. Vindictive as they are, they want me to finish all of this illegal time in Virginia before releasing me to the court in Florida." It is now a fact that they had succeeded in their conspirary to hold me to the last day. It might also be added That the records people and especially the mail room head had gone out of her way to constantly interfere with my incoming mail by returning to sender be cause she believed I should not have personal mail. Mail that I needed for my case which happened to be evidence.

Robert Barrett had dispatched the detainer but he did not answer when I wrote to him on the status of the detainer. Many letters written to the people involved in the conspiracy I do not have copies of because many times they are difficult to get. However, I do have some of the responses to some of the letters that were answered. It also seems strange that many times a letter would come from the Virginia Deputment of corrections unsigned leading one to believe that no one wants to take responsibility.

It is my bolief that the group mentioned in this 42-1983 civil suit, knowing or in some other capacity conspired against me in order to delay my release from the prison in Augusta. I believe enough evidence has been presented to find them neglegentand in conspiracy to do me further harm.

Commonwealth of Virginia Department of Corrections P.O. Box 26963 Richmond, Virginia 23261

Dear Ms. Ward.

On July 20, 2006 a letter was given to me by the counselor, Ms. Justice, dated July 11, 2006 from you concerning a detainer that was placed on my the court in the Southern District of Florida. I had signed the papers asking for a final disposition of the charge against me. I was informed by Ms. Justice that the papers were either mailed or delivered to the authorities who requested my appearance. In the Interstate Agreement on Detainer's Act, Article III (b) it states...the written notice is to be mailed, registered or certified with a return receipt requested. When I had inquired for a copy of the receipt, I was told that I could not have it. The woman, Ms. Grey, who was in charge is no longer here, so I am not sure to whom I should write to get a copy of said receipt. It is needed in a Motion that I am filing to the court to dismiss the detainer.

Article III (a) states...he shall be brought to trial within 180 days after he shall have caused the papers to be delivered to the appropriate court. I did all of that which was required of me. If the officials at this prison caused the papers not to be delivered what recourse do I have? I had asked for No delays or continuances in this matter and it has been over 210 days since the papers were signed by me, the counselor and the warden. Is there any new information in your office concerning this matter?

Thank you for your consideration.

3/5/07- as indicated in the attached letter, these charges are not subject to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers. You cannot make a request for speedy trial. Theresa Ward-Detainer Cooedinator

Dear Mr. Lucciola:

I am in receipt of your letter concerning the status of a detainer filed by the United States Marshals Service.

This office did not offer temporary custody to the United States Attorney for a detainer filed in favor of the Southern District of Florida. Preparation of the forms was done in error. The Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act does not apply to a supervised release violation or a probation violation, therefore your request would not be granted by the federal courts. If you wish to challenge this information, you should contact the United States Attorney in Southern Florida.

I trust this information will be of assistance.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

Benjamin Lucciola aka Beniamino Guarino Petitioner

V.

United States Marshall Service

Respondent

MOTION TO DISMISS

Now comes Benjamin Lucciola, defendant, currently incarcerated in Augusta Correctional Center, Craigsville, Virginia who asserts that a detainer placed on him by the Respondent be dismissed due to the time limit experation, 180 days. in violation of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers and the 6th. Amendment to the Constitution, Right to a speedy trial. Baker v. Wingo, 407 US 514, 33 L Ed.2d 101, 92 S Ct. 2182.

Benjamin Lucciola avers that on July 20, 2006 he had signed an agreement with the Federal Marshal Service to return to the jurisdiction of Miami, Florida to answer a charge of violating a condition of his supervised release: That of leaving the jurisdiction.

Petitioner, Lucciola avers that his current incarceration is a result of a parole violation from the Commonwealth of Virginia that was running concurrent with his Federal supervised release.

Petitioner avers that his parole was revoked on May 15, 2006 after having been in prison for eighty days awaiting the hearing.

Petitioner avers further, that the parole board took back all of his earned good time and imposed that 32 months sentence for leaving the country, to care for his gravely ill son who was living with his mother in Indonesia.

Petitioner also states that his return to the USA by the FBI was an illegal act of apprehension in that he was kidnapped from his home in Thailand without the benefit of a hearing and without a warrant being shown to him. The FBI had stated he was wanted on a 'flight' charge. That charge was dismissed by a judge in court upon his return to the USA.

Petitioner avers that Title 18 USCA § 3565... states...a defendant will serve a maximum sentence of one third of the original sentence when probation or supervised release is 'revoked'. In petitioner's case he was given the entire six years of his six year sentence.

Petitioner avers that he had served an excessive sentence for an alleged offense dating back to 1982.

Petitioneraversthat he was never made aware of the supervised release imposed on him when or after he had pled guilty to making a false statement on an application for a passport in Miami, Florida in 1992.

Petitioner avers that there should have been a plea agreement at the time of his hearing and made aware of what was being offered if indeed he was to plead guilty. Petitioner also believes that at the time of the hearing he should have had a written statement of sort that would have guaranteed he would be given credit for the extra six months that he had spent in a federal prison upon his being taken into custody by the authorities in Virginia.

Petitioner was illegally apprehended from his home in Thailand by Thai thugs and immigrations people who were working for the FBI who had stated that he was wanted on a Federal Flight Warrant (that warrant never being shown to petitioner). Case.. Robinson v. Overseas Military Sales Corp., 827 F Supp. 915 affirmed. 21 F 3d 502.Although 4th Amendment does not protect Americans from warrantless searches and seizures conducted by foreign officials in foreign countires, it protects Americans abroad from warrantless searches and seizures undertaken as joint ventures by foreign authorities with substantial participation of federal agents or where foreign people are acting as agents of the Federal Government...

Petitioner avers that after illegally being flown to the USA on the Federal Flight charge, that flight charge was dismissed by a Federal Judge in a court in Richmond, Virginia on March 6, 2006. Petitioner was then turned over to the Virginia police as a parole violator. Title 18 USCA § sec. 3192an extraditied person could only be tried for an extraditable offense and only for the offense for which he was extradited. U.S. v. Rauscher, USNY 1886, 7 S Ct. 234, 119 US 407, 30 L Ed 425.

Therefore, petitioner prays that this Honorable Court dismiss the detainer placed on him based on the above facts and the rules of the IAD and the 4th. and 14th Amendments. The fact also that petitioner was in Federal cuastody for 133 days as of July 7, 2006 before a detainer was placed on him. Thus far he has been in custody 324 days as of January 4, 2007 and the Federal authorities had failed to act. The delay in the filing of a detainer was not the fault of the petitioner. The fact also is the Federal authorities dropped the charges against him in the court in Virginia on March 6, 2006 and then picked up by the Federal authorities in Florida on July 7, 2006. Perhaps, a case of double jeoparty for an alleged misdemeanor and low felony offense dating back to 1982.

Petitioner prays that this Honorable Court release him from both state and federal custody due to several violations of his constitutional rights and the Agreement on Detainers Act, and for excessive sentences imposed on him for alleged minor offenses.

Benjamin Lucciola, pro se

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

v.

United States Marshal Services, Robert Barrett, et al Respondent

AMENDED MOTION TO DISMISS

Motion to Dismiss

Comes now, Benjamin Lucciola, petitioner, currently incarcerated in Augusta Correctional Center, Craigsville, Virginia who asserts that a detainer placed on him by the respondent be dismissed due to time set down by the Interstate Agreement on Detainers' Act.

- 1. Petitioner, Lucciola on July 20, 2006 had signed an agreement witnessed and signed by a counselor at the institution and by the Warden of said institution stating that he would return to the demanding jurisdiction to answer a charge of violating a condition of his supervised release.
- Petitioner, Lucciola asserts that said document with his 2. signature and those of two prison officials was to be mailed promptly after the signing to the respondent and any other officials involved in the case according to the rules of the Interstate Agreement on Detainers' Act.
- Petitioner, Lucciola asserts that as of February 20, 2007 3. 215 days had passed and no action had been taken on the detainer which was placed on him. The Interstate Agreement on Detainers' Act Article 111 (a) states that....you have a right to be brought to trial within 180 days ...or charges will be dropped...etc..

- 4. Petitioner, Lucciola asserts further that he had made inquiries as to the status of said detainer through prison officials and was informed that the documents had been mailed out. However, no proof of mailing was ever given to him when he had requested a copy of the receipt. The IADA specifically states that the papers will be mailed out promptly after signing, by first class mail, registered or certified with a return receipt, requested; as per the IADA Article III (b).
- 5. Petitioner, Lucciola asserts that there have been no delays that could be attributed to him as he was ready to comply with the rules of the IADA. If in fact the court had ordered a delay or continuance he was never made aware of it.
- 6. Petitioner, Lucciola had on January 25, 2007 filed a motion to dismiss with the United States District Court in the Southern District of Florida to which he had received no reply.
- 7. Petitioner, Lucciola asserts that he has abided by all of the rules set down by the government to have this matter put to rest. Thus far over 210 days had passed and no word has ever been received from the court. This is a violation of the IADA, Due Process of Law, and a right to a speedy trial. Baker v. Wingo, 407 US 514, 33 L Ed. 2d 101, 92 S Ct. 2182.
- a defendant will serve a maximum sentence of one third of the original sentence when probation or supervised release is revoked." He believes that since the Commonwealth of Virginia revoked his parole after he was taken into custody on February 24, 2006. That parole running concurrent with his supervised release from November 10, 1998 to November 10, 2001 having been revoked and he had already served over twelve months in prison for that alleged violation he should just be released as he had served more time than the statute calls for. In the IADA, Article III (e).." nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law...."

Therefore, petitioner, Lucciola request that this court dismiss the detainer placed on him and release him from custody.

Dear Mr. Maddox,

I received papers from the court dated March 27, 2007 on Tuesday, I am not sure what it is all about. Perhaps, it concerns the motions that I had submitted to the court on January 25, 2007 and on February 28, 2007 in whiapp had 2007 asked the court to Dismiss the Detainer placed on me charging me with a violation my supervised release. SEE Attached, EXHIBITS A, A-1, A-1.1, A-2, A-2. are DEVILABILED

If the woman, Theresa Ward, Detainer Coordinator from the Virginia Department of Corrections knew her job and knew for a fact that the Interstate Agreement on Detainer's Act dosen't deal with parole, probation or supervised release she would not have sent the Detainer Forms to me at this institution. The same holds true for the Warden here, who in fact along with a counselor signed the documents. But I beg to differ with their opinions that parole, probation and supervised release are not subject to the terms of the IADA. - It specifically states in Article III (a) ".... there is pending in any party state...untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which...." The state of Florida is charging me with and or complaining that I committed an offense when I left the USA. - No where in the IADA does it state anything about parole, probation or supervised release not being part of the IADA.

After the Detainer papers were properly filled in and signed by all parties concerned, they should have been mailed promptly according to Article III (b) of the IADA. I was told by the counselor, Ms. Justice that the papers were mailed. SEE Attached, EXHIBITS C, AND C.1. However, when I requested a copy of the return receipt from the post office I was refused a copy. The detainer papers were filled in on July 20, 2006 and should have been mailed out within a few days. The papers were never sent to the court in Florida.

When I did not hear from the court in Florida after the 180 days had passed, I filed a motion to dismiss the detainer on January 25, 2007. When I did not hear from your court I contacted Ms. Theresa Ward, the Detainer Coordinator who then on March 7, 2007 sent me a letter that was dated August 1, 2006. SEE Attached, EXHIBITS D, and EXH. D.1. However, before I received the letter from Ms. Ward I had filed an Amended Motion to Dismiss the Detainer on February 28, 2007 because I had not heard from your court. To be frank with you sir, these people have been playing games with me the entire time of my incarceratiion since I was kidnapped from my home in Thailand on February 24, 2006. In fact this is the second time that the Commonwealth of Virginia did something like this to me. The first time was when the Florida court released me in June 1993. Virginia claimed that they had placed a detainer on me while I was in the Federal Facility in Florida but they had failed to extradite me. They had waited for the state of Pennsylvania to release me in June 1995 and then kidnapped me from a local jail in Honesdale, Pennsylvania. When my court appointed attorney filed motions to dismiss and to quash the capias, both were denied by the judge. It was also proven in the court in Virginia that a detainer was never place on me. It is also a fact that Judge C. Clyde Atkins had stated I should be given credit for the extra 5 plus months that I was held by the Federal authorities. Virginia says that I was not been held there specifically for them. So it seems that I have about 5 months and 12 days credit owed to me by the court in Florida since the Virginia people or the Pennsylvania people gave me no credit for it while I was incarceration in their states.

EX.B-Z

I also believe that the Virginia people did not send the Detainer papers to the court in Florida because they know that my time in Florida would run along with my time in Virginia. Vindictive as they are, they want me to finish all of this illegal time in Virginia before releasing me to the court in Florida.

Perhaps, the court in Florida could extradite me now so as to get this nightmare over with. My alleged offense in Virginia, a misdemeanor and low felony is from 1982. My passport offense in Florida, where I tried to get a passport for my young son is from 1992. Please, let me get on with what is left of my life.

Thanks.

Respectfully,

Beniamino A. Guarino aka
